

The gradient falls by four orders of magnitude, the margin by less than a factor of two

Both radii rise by two to three orders of magnitude over the tested range of sigma

